

INSPIRED:
Renovations

Back Story:

Although a total renovation had been completed prior to purchasing it, our client immediately set out to revamp the house. The home's beautiful waterfront site made this a worthwhile investment.

The Goal:

The goal was to create a better-functioning home with elegant details more consistent with the Georgian style that the house was intended to be.

Hidden Technology:

This room is where films are reviewed by the couple for a run in their art house cinema in Stamford. Accompanied by surround sound audio, a large television rises on command from the cabinet within the arched niche, and the space is transformed into an intimate screening room.
